

Larry A. Latchford, (9 Mar 1937 – 27 Jul 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, August 20, 2009,

Larry A. Latchford, 72, of Loysville, died Monday, July 27, 2009, in Carolyn Croxton Slane Hospice Residence, Harrisburg.

He was born March 9, 1937 at Loysville, to the late Theodore A. and Alice Mae Bender Latchford. He also was preceded in death by a brother, Harry L. Latchford.

He was a retired driver for Rohrer Bus Service, Duncannon. He formerly owned a building restoration business and was an inseminator.

Surviving are his wife, Vonny R. Latchford, three children, Brenda J. Oresic, Mt. Holly, N.J., Fran J. Charney, Shermans Dale, and Alton D. Latchford, Loysville; a brother, Paul W. Latchford and wife Mimi, Harrisburg; a sister-in-law, Joyce M. Latchford, Loysville, eight grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Memorial services will be held Saturday, Aug. 22, at Sandy Hill U.C.C., Loysville, with the Revs. Arlene Dunn and Alan Foor officiating. The church is on Route 17, a half-mile east of Kistler.

Visitation will follow the service at the Centre Presbyterian Church fellowship hall.

Memorials may be made to the Carolyn Croxton Slane Residence, 1701 Linglestown Road, Harrisburg 17110.

Arrangements are being handled by Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville.

www.theperryhistorians.org