

Mae V. Lawver, (11 May 1927 – 30 Jun 2009), Perry County Times, Wednesday, July 08, 2009

Mae V. Lawver, 82, of Mifflintown RR 1 died Tuesday, June 30, 2009 at Brookline Manor, Mifflintown. She was formerly was of Millerstown RR 2.

She was born May 11, 1927 in Greenwood Twp., Juniata County, to the late Ross Wilson and Ruth (Piefer) Lawver.

She had worked for the former Nipple Convalescent Home in Liverpool and also had been employed by the former shirt factories in Richfield and Liverpool; attended Richfield Evangelical Methodist Church; and enjoyed doing latch-hooking and attending Richfield Senior Citizens.

She was the last of her immediate family, being preceded in death by two sisters, Beulah Mae Arbogast and Dora Edna Lawver. Surviving are several generations of nieces and nephews.

A service was held July 2 in George P. Garman Funeral Home, Mt. Pleasant Mills, with Pastor Aaron M. McCarty officiating.

Burial was in St. Peters U.C.C. Cemetery, Millerstown.

www.theperryhistorians.org