

Gerald B. Leonhard, (13 Dec 1935 - 18 Jun 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, June 25, 2009

Gerald B. Leonhard, 73, of Faculty Road, Duncannon, died Thursday, June 18, 2009 in his Penn Twp. home.

He was born Dec. 13, 1935 in Reading to the late Richard Leonard and Dorothy Hardin, and was a stepson of Schuyler Hardin.

He retired from Taylor Warton-Harsco Division after 32 years of service; was a Duncannon High School graduate; a Marine veteran; an assistant Little League baseball coach and a trainer for Susquenita Midget Football Association for many years; and a life member of Duncannon Fire Company 1 and a member of Pennsylvania Sheriff's Association, Duncannon American Legion National Committee to preserve Social Security and medicine, and Duncannon Alumni Association.

Surviving are his wife, Phyllis (Mutzabaugh) Leonhard; two sons, Bryan and Douglas, both of Duncannon; a brother, Ronald of Duncannon; a sister, Alice Faye Reinhart of Temple, Pa.; and four granddaughters, Brittany of Harrisburg, Sierra, Azalyn and Jaylene, all of Duncannon.

Services were held June 22 in Boyer Funeral Home, Duncannon, with the Revs. Donald E. Harbaugh and David Schreffler officiating.

Burial, with military honors, was in Union Cemetery, Duncannon.

Memorial contributions may be made to Heartland Hospice, 1200 Walnut Bottom Road, Carlisle 17013, or Christ Lutheran Church, 115 Church St., Duncannon 17020.

www.theperryhistorians.org