

Edith M. (Putt) Leshner, (1 Sep 1922 – 12 Aug 2004), Patriot-News, Saturday, August 14, 2004

New Bloomfield - Edith M. "Edie" Leshner, 81, of West Main Street, New Bloomfield, died Thursday in Chapel Pointe at Carlisle.

Edie was born September 1, 1922 in Newport, PA, to the late Howard Holley and Florence Foose Putt.

She was formerly employed at the former Carlisle Tire and Rubber Company and was a cook at the Perry County Prison. She was a member of the New Bloomfield Ambulance Association.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George H. Leshner and two sons, James Holley and John Leshner.

Surviving are three daughters, Patricia Gilbert of Summerdale, Joan Reich of North Carolina, Wendi Mullen of Shermans Dale; three sons, Larry Leshner of Carlisle, Ron Leshner of Duncannon and Walter Leshner of New Bloomfield; a sister, Jeanette Messimer of Millerstown; 16 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, in the Bloomfield Cemetery, New Bloomfield, with the Rev. Michael Zang officiating.

Arrangements are being handled by the Nickel Funeral Home, 3626 Shermans Valley Road, Loysville.

www.theperryhistorians.org