

David J. Lewis, (7 Jun 1876 – 4 Jul 1936), Harrisburg Telegraph, Monday, July 6, 1936

David J. Lewis, 60, Duncannon, died Saturday in the Temple University Hospital, Philadelphia. He was a railway mail clerk for thirty-two years. Funeral Tuesday at 2.30 p.m. at the Nickel Funeral Home, Duncannon, the Rev. L. E. Shaffner, pastor of the Duncannon Methodist Church, officiating. Burial, Evergreen Cemetery, Duncannon. View, tonight at the parlors. Members of Mr. Lewis' crew of mail clerks will be pallbearers. Survivors, widow Mrs. Jessie M.; sons, George M., Duncannon; David J., Jr., Estherton; John M.: Paul F., both at home; daughters Mrs. Gail Young, Plymouth; Miss Edith, Harrisburg; Miss Ruth, Duncannon; Miss Mary Langhorn; stepson, Richard Harp, West Fairview. He was a member of the following mail clerk societies: Mutual Benefit Association; Immediate Relief Association; Railway Mail Clerks Association.

www.theperryhistorians.org