

Alan T. Lightner, (12 Jun 1950 – 27 Jun 2010), Patriot-News, Monday, June 28, 2010

ICKESBURG -- Alan T. Lightner, 60, of 6911 Veterans Way, Ickesburg, died Sunday, June 27, 2010 at his home.

Born June 12, 1950 in Elliottsburg, he was the son of the late Albert and Eunice Fogelman Lightner.

Mr. Lightner was a former board member of New Life Assembly of God, Landisburg. He had formerly been employed by C. H. Masland's, Lear Inc, and Bedford Shoe Co. He was a carpenter and had been active in the Perry County Winterization Program. He was a member of the Cowboys Action Shooting Club and had been an originating member of the Ickesburg Ambulance Association as well as the Ickesburg Sportsmen's Association. He was a remote control airplane enthusiast.

Surviving are his wife, Julia L. Schreffler Lightner; a son, Trevor A. Lightner and wife Amanda of Landisburg; a daughter, Heather Lightner of Ickesburg. A brother, Mark Lightner of Honey Grove, two sisters, Dolores G. Reisinger and husband Charles of Kistler and Melody Walborn and husband Barry of Newport. He was preceded in death by a sister Kathy.

Services will be held at 11 AM on Wednesday, June 30, 2010 in New Life Assembly of God, Landisburg. Rev. Larry Bidwell will officiate.

Burial will be in Buffalo Cemetery, Ickesburg. There will be no viewing or visitation Arrangement are under the direction of Boyer Funeral Homes, New Bloomfield/Duncannon.

www.theperryhistorians.org