

April Lynn (Baer) Linn, (9 Nov 1979 – 28 Oct 2009), Perry County Times, Thursday, November 19, 2009

April Lynn Linn, 29, of Newville Road, Newburg, died Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2009 in Milton S. Hershey Medical Center.

She was born Nov. 9, 1979 in Carlisle.

She was a customer service representative for Woodforest National Bank, Shippensburg; a den mother for her sons' Scout organizations; and enjoyed baking with her sister.

Surviving are her husband, John; two sons, James and Dale Linn, at home; her parents, Dennis and Betty Baer of New Bloomfield; a sister, Leann Marie Behrendt of Elliottsburg; a brother, Jesse Baer of Millerstown; maternal grandmother, Emmie Foose of Newville; father-in-law and stepmother-in-law, James and Deborah Linn of Dillsburg; mother-in-law and stepfather-in-law, Karola and Norman Starliper of Orrstown; aunts and uncle, Calvin and Mary Clouser of New Bloomfield and Mary Davis of Newville; a nephew, Bandon Baer of Millerstown; two nieces, Johnni Rae Berhrendt of Elliottsburg and Brianna Baer, Millerstown; and an aunt, Terry Cursey of Westminster, Md.

Services were held Nov. 2 in Newburg United Methodist Church with the Rev. Margaret Spengler officiating, and in Little Germany Church of God with the Rev. John Snyder officiating. Burial was in Foose Cemetery.

Boyer Funeral Homes, New Bloomfield/Duncannon, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions, for a trust fund for her children, may be made to Woodforest National Bank, 100 S. Conestoga Street, Shippensburg 17257.