

David S. Little, (7 Jul 1916 – 24 May 2002), Patriot, May 22, 2002

David S. Little, 85, of Hunters Church Road, Liverpool, died Friday, May 24, 2002 at home.

He was born July 7, 1916 in Newport to the late Harvey and Estella (Umholtz) Little.

He had worked for the former Swift and Co. and was a retired federal meat inspector; a member of Pine Grove Church of God where he was a lifetime elder; and enjoyed hunting and his canine companion, Dolly.

He was the widower of Vera Baker Little.

Surviving are two sons, David E. of Duncannon and Wayne E. of Newport; two daughters, Janet Allander of Duncannon and Dolores Finton of Liverpool; five brothers, Kenneth, Ronald and Harold, all of Newport, Harry of Linglestown and George of Camp Hill; four sisters, Edna Stiffler of Carlisle, Ida Gardner of Duncannon, and Mabel Bohn and Marie Kramer, both of Newport; 15 grandchildren; a step grandchild; 14 great-grandchildren; and a step great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Benjamin and Donald, and a great-grandchild, Scotty.

Services were held May 28 in Myers Funeral Home, Newport.

Burial was in Newport Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org