

Commemorative Biographical Encyclopedia of Dauphin County, Chambersburg, Pa., J. M. Runk and Company, 1896.

Marshall, John S., plumbing, gas fitting, heating and sanitary drainage, was born near Millerstown, Perry County, Pa., May 31, 1863, son of the late John L. and Mary Anna (Wood) Marshall. The father was born in West Chester, Chester County, Pa., May 6, 1831, and was for a number of years engaged in teaching school in Lancaster and Chester counties, afterwards removing to Harrisburg in 1868, where he was in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company until his death by accident, July 5, 1877, being cut off in early life when his future prospects were the brightest. The mother was born in Philadelphia, April 15, 1834, and was married to Mr. Marshall, May 21, 1855. Their children are: Addie T., wife of Charles M. Davis, of Harrisburg; Esther D., wife of John Ludwig, of Harrisburg; Sallie E., wife of Elmer E. Stacy, of Williamsport, Pa.; John S.; Elizabeth, wife of Henry Ault, of Lebanon city; Mary A., wife of Charles S. Anderson, of Harrisburg; Charles G. and William H. S., of Harrisburg. Their children are: Robert M. and George M. John S. came to Harrisburg with his parents in 1868, where he received his education in the public schools and later took a course in the business college at Altoona, Pa. He spent four years in other parts of the State in perfecting himself in the several branches of his business, in which he has been engaged for fourteen years in this city, seven of which he has conducted business for himself. Mr. Marshall is a member of Dauphin Lodge, No. 160; a past chief patriarch of Dauphin Encampment, No. 10, I. O. O. F.; a past sachem of Octorara Tribe, I. O. R. M., and a member of Egyptian Commandery, No. 114, K. of M.; Octorara Council, Daughters of Pocahontas, and a prominent member of the Master Plumbers' Association of Harrisburg. In his political views Mr. Marshall is a Republican, but is not an office seeker. He is a member of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church.

www.theperryhistorians.org