

Commemorative Biographical Encyclopedia of The Juniata Valley, comprising the Counties of Huntingdon, Mifflin, Juniata, and Perry, Pennsylvania, 1897, Chambersburg, Pa., J. M. Runk and Company Publishers

Joseph B. McClintock, Shermansdale, Perry County, Pa., was born on the homestead in Carroll Township, Perry County, December 24, 1844. He is a son of John and Sarah (Jones) McClintock. His paternal grandfather, John McClintock, was a native of Ireland. He emigrated to America when a young man, and settled on a farm in Carroll Township, Perry County. He also engaged in lumbering. He had seven children: Alexander; James; Sarah (Mrs. McKinsey); John; Elizabeth (Mrs. John Finley); Margaret (Mrs. James White); and David. David McClintock removed to the west. After the decision of a case in court in which he had been one of the principal witnesses, one of the men concerned came to his house, called him to the door, and shot him dead. Of these seven children, Alexander is the only survivor. Mr. McClintock's maternal grandfather, Benjamin Jones, a native of Wales, emigrated to America during the last century, and settled on a farm in Spring Township, Perry County. He was a prominent man in the county and held various offices. He had ten children: Joseph; Israel; John; William; Rebecca (Mrs. Benjamin Jones); Sarah; Martha (Mrs. David Wickerd); Jane (Mrs. Peter Sowers); and two who died in infancy. All are dead. Mr. Jones died aged eighty-three; his wife at the age of seventy-seven.

Mr. McClintock's parents were natives of Perry County. His father, John McClintock, spent his life on his farm in his native county. Mr. John McClintock was married to Sarah, daughter of Benjamin Jones. They had ten children: Benjamin; Martha (Mrs. R. M. Jones); Sarah (Mrs. Thomas Smiley); Joseph B.; Mary (Mrs. Thomas Larmer) ; Washington; Rebecca, deceased; Joshua, died in 1863, aged twenty-four years and six months; John, was killed in the army; and Elizabeth (Mrs. Jacob Caulter), died July 4, 1893, aged fifty-eight. Mr. John McClintock and his wife were members of the United Brethren Church, in which he was trustee, steward and class-leader. He died July 16, 1877, aged seventy-five years, one month and twenty-two days; his wife died aged eighty-one years. Joseph B. McClintock received his education in the public schools of his native county, studying in winter and working with his father on the farm during the summer. When he was twenty, he learned carpentry, serving a two years' apprenticeship with his brother. He worked at his trade for ten years, four of which were spent in Harrisburg, Pa. Later, Mr. McClintock turned his attention to mercantile pursuits; for one year he had a grocery store in Steelton, Pa., after which he removed to Carroll Township, Perry County, and opened a general store; he also engaged in hucksterage and in farming. Since 1889, he has been agent for the sale of phosphates in Carlisle, Cumberland County. Mr. McClintock takes an active interest in local affairs, and has filled various township offices. In 1881, he was elected constable, and in 1888 supervisor. He is a member of the Senior O. U. A. M., No. 168, Shermansdale Lodge.

Joseph B. McClintock was married April 20, 1871, to Lydia, daughter of Amos and Salinda (Struder) Millhouse. Mr. McClintock and his wife are members of the United Brethren Church, in which he holds various offices. He is also superintendent of the Sunday school.