

Pearl T. (Tasker) McGuire, (7 Sep 1929 – 22 Jul 2012), Perry County Times, August 9, 2012

Pearl T. McGuire, 82, of Duncannon died Sunday, July 22, 2012 at home.

She was born Sept. 7, 1929 in Duncannon to the late Andrew and Mary (Belovich) Tasker.

She and her husband started their lives together as dairy farmers. She then was the office manager for the Dale McGuire Insurance Agency, Duncannon, and also worked for Richard Swank's Duncannon Record.

She was a graduate of the former Duncannon High School, and a member of St. Bernadette Catholic Church, Duncannon, and a former member of Shermanata Grange, Duncannon.

She was an avid flea marketer and antique enthusiast, extremely knowledgeable about fine china and crystal; and enjoyed gardening and canning what she grew, hosting events for family and friends, and traveling and road trips with her husband.

Surviving are her husband, Dale E. McGuire; a son, D. Andrew of Duncannon; three daughters, Kathy A. Reider of Harrisburg, Judy L. Bitting of Duncannon and Jamie M. Ruminski of Camp Hill; a caregiver and "daughter," Frances Haynes of Duncannon; two sisters, Lillian Yohn of Port Royal and Olga Olechovsky of Raleigh, N.C.; eight grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Emil A. Tasker, and two sisters, Helen Rogers and Margaret Miller.

Mass of Christian Burial was held July 27, 2012 in her church with the Rev. Father John Trigilio Jr. officiating.

Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery, Duncannon.

Ronald C.L. Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to her church, 901 High St., Duncannon 17020.

www.theperryhistorians.org