

David S. Miller (9 May 1886 – 3 Apr 1967), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

David S. Miller, 80, of 715 N. High Street, Duncannon, died April 3 at Harrisburg Hospital.

He was a retired ticket agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was a member of the Duncannon Presbyterian Church, having served as an elder for many years. He was a member of the Tyrone Masonic Lodge, No. 494; Harrisburg Consistory, Jaffa Temple of Altoona and Harrisburg Forest 43, Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary H. Miller; three sons, E. Gerald Miller of Duncannon, RD 2, D. Max Miller of New York City, and Dr. Jay S. Miller of Newville; a daughter, Mrs. Melvin C. Hunter of Royersford, Pa.; a brother, Earl Miller of Huntingdon; a sister, Mrs. David Goodman of Mount Union; six grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Services were held Saturday.

Burial was in the Duncannon Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org