

Elizabeth E. (Shelley) Miller, (14 Oct 1929 – 25 Jan 2013), Perry County Times, Thursday, February 7, 2013

Elizabeth E. “Betty” Miller, 83, of Millerstown died at Friday, Jan. 25, 2013 at Stonebridge Health and Rehabilitation Center, Duncannon.

She was born Oct. 14, 1929 in Fayette Twp., Juniata County, to the late North S. and Myrtle (Strawser) Shelley.

She was retired as a seamstress and had worked at McAlisterville Shirt Factory, Lyons Fashions and L. Shellenberger and Sons; a member of McAlisterville United Methodist Church and attended St. John Barner’s Lutheran Church, Liverpool; and a volunteer for Juniata Meals on Wheels.

She was the widow of Clarence J. “Jake” Miller, who died Sept. 2, 1995 and to whom she was married nearly 45 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Deborah M. Davidson of Millerstown; two brothers, Robert Shelley of Thompsontown and Ray Shelley of McAlisterville; a granddaughter, Carla Wright of Millerstown; and a great-granddaughter, Cassie Wright.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Lois Sausser, and two brothers, William and Nevin Shelley.

Services were held Jan. 30 in Brown Funeral Homes, McAlisterville, with the Rev. Edward D’Agostino and Pastor Peter Kuebler officiating.

Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, McAlisterville.

Memorial contributions may be made to McAlisterville United Methodist Church, c/o Nancy Helwig, 179 Musser Road, McAlisterville 17049.

www.theperryhistorians.org