

Henry H. Miller, Patriot, Tuesday, March 12, 1918

Henry H. Miller, of Newport, aged 69 years, died yesterday afternoon at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station. Mr. Miller, having been overcome by a heart attack on leaving the train from Newport, was taken to the waiting room, where he succumbed twenty minutes after.

He is survived by eight children. The remains will be taken this evening to Newport by Undertaker Charles H. Mauk, Sixth and Kelker Streets. A funeral service will be conducted at the residence of his son, John H. Miller, on Thursday afternoon. Burial will be in the Red Hill Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org