

History of the State of Kansas, Atchison County, William G. Cutler, Published in 1883 by A.T. Andreas, Chicago, IL

J. W. Miller, carpenter and cabinet-maker, also dealer in furniture and undertakers' goods came to Rossville in October, 1880, from Perry County, Pa. He was born in York County, Pa., July 14, 1841. Remained in that county until about thirteen years old, and removed to Franklin County; remained several years and moved to Perry County, where he learned his trade, and remained until coming to Kansas. He enlisted September 15, 1862, in Company K, Fifteenth Pennsylvania Cavalry, as a private. Was in the western army and was with his command at Nashville, Stone River, Chattanooga, Atlanta and Chickamauga. Was in Thomas' raid against Hood, and captured many stores. Was promoted to Sergeant, March 15, 1865. Was mustered out July 21, 1865, at Nashville, Tenn. Returned to Perry County, Pa., where he carried on the furniture and undertaking business. He was married December 25, 1866, at Landisburg, Pa., to Miss Elizabeth Gray, a native of Pennsylvania. They have four children - Charles, George, Harry and Grace. Mr. Miller is a member of Ohio Lodge, No. 132, I. O. O. F., Silver Lake. Is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in politics, a Republican.

www.theperryhistorians.org