

John Wesley Milliken, (20 Jan 1866 – 26 Jun 1933), Patriot, Wednesday, June 28, 1933

John W. Milliken, 66 years old, died at his home in Lincoln Street on Monday, June 27 following several months' illness. He was a retired car repairman having been employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad at Enola.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Ella Nevin Milliken, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lillian Arter of Marysville, and Mrs. Margaret Lees of Harrisburg. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Kies and Mrs. Annie Arndt, of Harrisburg; and two brothers, George Milliken, of Marysville, and Thomas Milliken of Harrisburg. One grandson also survives. He was a member of Buehler Lodge No. 269, Knights of Pythias of Marysville and the Warrior Eagle Tribe of the Independent Order of Red Men, Harrisburg.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence in Lincoln St. The Rev. Ezra L. Parks, pastor of the Methodist Church, will officiate.

Burial will be in the Chestnut Grove Cemetery. The body may be viewed at the home on Wednesday evening from 7 until 9 o'clock at the home.

www.theperryhistorians.org