

Glenn E. Mitchell, (16 Mar 1932 -31 Oct 2009), Perry County Times, Wednesday, November 11, 2009

Glenn E. "Mitch" Mitchell, 77, of Duncannon, died Saturday, Oct. 31, 2009 at home.

He was a hardworking farmer and a retired supervisor from the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, working at the State Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg; a member of Adams Lodge F&AM, New Bloomfield, Harrisburg Consistory Perry County Fair Board and a lifetime member of Otterbein United Methodist Church, Duncannon; and enjoyed farming and sharing a home-cooked meal with family and friends.

He was the widower of Carolyn L. Mitchell.

Surviving are two daughters, Brenda J. Mitchell of Linden Pa., and Robin M. Bahrenburg of Duncannon; five grandchildren, Mitchell Justin Cassel, Erin Cassel, Corey Peifer, Jacob Bahrenburg and Jamie Bahrenburg; two great-grandsons, Cade Cassel and Cai Cassel; two brothers W. Robert and Donald, both of Duncannon.

He was preceded in death by an infant son and daughter.

Services were held Nov. 7 in his church with the Revs. Candace Arnold and John Feaster officiating.

Burial was in Penn Memory Gardens, Duncannon.

Ronald C.L. Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made in memory of Glenn, to his church, 327 Newport Road, Duncannon 17020.

www.theperryhistorians.org