

Sally (Boch) Montrose, (4 Aug 1932 – 27 Nov 2012), Perry County Times, Saturday, December 8, 2012

Sally Montrose, 80, of Irwin died Tuesday Nov. 27, 2012 in Newport.

She was born Aug. 4, 1932 to the late Frank and Rachel (Wampler) Boch of Irwin.

She was an avid reader, particularly American history, and enjoyed traveling, playing cards with friends, eating out, the Sunday paper and a good Lenten fish fry and the Burger Bash at Immaculate Conception Church in Irwin, where she was a lifelong parishioner.

She was the wife of Russell Montrose for 59 years.

Surviving are two daughters, Patricia Harshberger of Newport, with whom she resided, and Beverly Montrose of Forest Hills; two sons, Ken of Seven Fields and Kirk of Dillsburg; nine grandchildren, Stephanie, Andrew, Elizabeth, Emily, Danny, Kirk Jr., Megan, Paige and Kyle; and five great-grandchildren, Sophia, Ella, Maggie, Katie and Luci.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Leo, Tony and Frank; and two sisters, Betty Kemerer and Mildred Kooser.

Mass of Christian Burial was held Dec. 1 in Church of the Immaculate Conception. Burial was in the church cemetery.

David Myers Funeral Home, Newport, handled arrangements.

In lieu of memorial contributions, she requested Masses be offered in her name.

www.theperryhistorians.org