

A Genealogical Record of the Descendants of Christian and Hans Meyer and other Pioneers, Together With Historical And Biographical Sketches, Illustrated With Eighty seven Portraits And Other Illustrations. By Rev. A. J. Fretz, Milton, N. J. With an introduction by A. N. Moyer, of Kansas City, Kan. 1896. News Printing House, Harleysville, Pa.

v. John K. Myers, born in Bucks County; died January 30, 1893, aged 76 years; married Maria, daughter of "Velvet" Henry Fretz, September 22, 1844. Farmer and miller. Children: David, Amos, Martha, Albert, Minerva, Anthony, Anna.

vi. Anthony F. Myers, M. D., born in Plumstead Township, Bucks County, January 6, 1856. Mr. Myers was reared on his father's farm and mill property on the Tohickon Creek, in Tincum Township, and attended the public schools during the Winter months. At the age of 20 he attended the Mennonite Seminary at Wadsworth, O., for a year, and began teaching in the public schools of Tincum in the Fall of 1876. The following two years he taught the Pipersville School, and during the Summer terms attended the Millersville State Normal School. In September 1879 he again entered the normal for a year, and while there was tendered the position of assistant principal of the Tressler Orphans Home at Loysville, Perry County, Pa. After filling this responsible position for two years he resigned and spent several months traveling, visiting numerous national cemeteries, old battle fields and various places of interest in some of the Southern States. In September 1882 he entered the office of Dr. S. S. Brumbaugh, at Pipersville, Pa., and began the study of medicine. The following year he entered the Missouri Medical College at St. Louis, from which he graduated as physician and surgeon in March 1885. He returned East in order to become a practicing physician in Pennsylvania. He passed a creditable examination at the Medico-Chirurgical College, of Philadelphia, and since April 1885 he has been a practicing physician at Blooming Glen, Pa., where, by his ambition to become more proficient in his profession, he is enjoying a lucrative practice. The doctor is an active member of the Bucks County Medical Society, the Lehigh Valley Medical Association, the Pennsylvania State Medical Association, an associate editor of the "Lehigh Valley Medical Magazine," and a member of the leading fraternal organizations.

Dr. Myers was married October 11, 1888, to Wilhelmina S., daughter of Simon H. and Lydia (Savacool) Snyder. She was born March 21, 1864. Lutheran. One child: (vii) Clarence S. Myers, born April 30, 1892.

www.theperryhistorians.org