

Mary Jane (Finkenbinder) Myers, (7 Aug 1929 – 22 Jul 2011), The Perry County Times, Saturday, August 6, 2011

Mary Jane Myers, 81, of Shermans Dale died Friday, July 22, 2011, at home.

She was born Wednesday, Aug. 7, 1929, in Carlisle to the late Grace Finkenbinder.

She had worked at the former Carlisle Food Market and retired as the postmaster at the Shermans Dale Post Office after 30 years of service; was a 1946 graduate of Carlisle High School; a member of Shermans Dale United Methodist Church; and a contributor and volunteer at the Perry County Food Bank.

She was the widow of Clair H. Myers, who died Nov. 16, 2003.

Surviving are three daughters, Margaret E. Heisner and Melanie A. Fetterhoff, both of Carlisle, and Laurie E. Myers of Mechanicsburg; a son, Randall H. of Shermans Dale; six grandchildren, Michael Moll, Brian Myers, Ginger Keck, Stephanie Campbell, Heidi Fetterhoff and Holli Miller; 12 great-grandchildren; and a nephew.

Services were held July 27 in her church with the Rev. N. Jeffrey Brewster officiating. Burial was in Shermans Dale Presbyterian Cemetery.

Ewing Brothers Funeral Home, Carlisle, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Perry County Food Bank, 300A S. Carlisle St., New Bloomfield 17068.

www.theperryhistorians.org