

Herbert G. Pfautz, (Died 24 Dec 2010), Perry County Times, Monday, January 6, 2011

Herbert G. Pfautz Sr., 92, of Lancaster and formerly of Brethren Village, died Friday, Dec. 24, 2010 at Lancashire Hall.

He was born in Lititz to Irvin W. and Irene (George) Pfautz.

He was retired as a weaver for Raymark Inc., previously farmed in Lititz and Hershey and was a railroad worker, and after retirement, moved to Perry County and worked with his brother, Dr. Harry Pfautz; an Army Air Force veteran of World War II; and a member of Asbury United Methodist Church, Duncannon, and Golden Age and Senior Citizens of Duncannon

Surviving are his wife of 66 years, Elizabeth M. (Cushing) Pfautz; three sons, Herbert G. Jr. of Fla., Steven I. of Manheim and Terry A. of Lititz; a daughter, Linda C. Bomberger of Lititz; 10 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Ruth McCoy of Lancaster and Mae Goodman of Lititz.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Dr. Edward Pfautz, Dr. Harry Pfautz and Richard Pfautz; and four sisters, Beatrice Greenly, Clara Birk, Betty Matoney and Florence Fears.

A memorial service was held Dec. 30 in Brethren Village Chapel, Lancaster, with the Rev. Dana Statler officiating.

Burial was in Longenecker's Cemetery.

Snyder Funeral Home and Crematory handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of Lancaster County, P.O. Box 4125, Lancaster 17604.

www.theperryhistorians.org