

George W. Radabaugh, (27 Dec 1939 – 13 Jun 2003), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

George W. Radabaugh, 63, of Duncannon died Friday, June 13, 2003 at Harrisburg Hospital.

He was born Dec. 27, 1939 in Penn Twp. to the late George and Sarah (Idle) Radabaugh.

He retired from Bethlehem Steel, Steelton, where he worked for 36 years; an Army veteran; and a member of Steel Workers Union.

Surviving are his wife, Donna Morrison Radabaugh; a son, Brian L. of Newville; a daughter, Kim N. Dicks of Duncannon; four sisters, Ruth F. Bornman and Sarah "Sue" Harris, both of Duncannon, Betty J. Hartz of Dauphin and Iona J. Mayberry of Landisburg; a brother, Paul E. of Duncannon; two stepsisters, Betty B. Klinepeter and Mary Jane Smith, both of Duncannon; a stepbrother, Junior F. Baker of New Bloomfield; and two grandsons, Nathan L. Radabaugh and Zachary J. Dicks.

He was preceded in death by a sister, Edith Roush, and a brother, Marlin.

Services were held June 18 in Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, with the Rev. B. Michael Brossman officiating. Burial was in Union Cemetery, Duncannon.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Heart Association, 1517 Cedar Cliff Drive, Camp Hill 17011, or American Cancer Society, 3211 N. Front St., Suite 100, Harrisburg 17110.

www.theperryhistorians.org