

Norman C. Radabaugh, (5 Feb 1945 – 6 Mar 2011), Newspaper Clipping Paul, Idaho, The Perry Historians

Norman C Radabaugh, 66, of Paul, passed away at his home at 7:37 a.m., Sunday morning on March 6, 2011. He was surrounded by his family and friends.

Norman was born Feb. 5, 1945, in Marysville, Pa., to Clayton and Joyce (Barthel) Radabaugh.

He was the oldest of seven children, Ron (Kim) Radabaugh of Buhl, Linda (Earl) Jackson of Mesa, Ariz., Susan Thomas of Irving, Texas, Bob (Von) Radabaugh of Montpelier, Lorraine Buckman of Yakima, Wash., and Mike (Rhonda) Radabaugh of Yakima, Wash.

Norman was retired from driving truck; he worked for C.R. England Trucking as an owner-operator until 2002. He owned Trucker Pallet Exchange, the business he started in 1993. Norman had a love for boxing and was a featherweight in his younger days; he was going to turn pro but an injury to his hand prevented that. He was a hard worker who always had something to do or someone to help. He enjoyed boxing and weightlifting. Norman also adored his grandchildren and loved to take walks with his "girls," Spot and Lilly, and had a love for all animals and children.

Norman was survived by his children, Jason, James, Andrea (Fred) and Danyale; He was "Papa Norman" to 8 grandchildren, MaKayla, Koebea, Austynn, Morgan, Logan, McKell, Gloria, and Alexander. Norman will be joining his parents; daughters, Sheila and Shauna; son, Calvin; nephew, Kevin; great-nephew, Timothy; other grandchildren and other side of the family will not be mentioned at this time

Special thanks to Inter mountain Healthcare for the support and compassion they showed to the family. We would like to offer a special thanks to Dr. Klett, nurse Debbie and Mario for the extra love and support during this very hard time. Norman lost his life too young but fought a courageous battle to the end. He will be missed dearly.

www.theperryhistorians.org