

Joshua R. Reichert, (6 May 1980 – 19 Apr 2011), Perry County Times, Monday, May 2, 2011

Joshua R. “Josh” Reichert, 30, of Liverpool died Tuesday, April 19, 2011 near Richfield.

He was born May 6, 1980 in Harrisburg to Robert J. Jr. and Diane (Enders) Reichert of McAlisterville.

He formerly was employed as an over-the-road truck driver; attended East Juniata High School; and enjoyed tinkering with cars, trucks and motorcycles, boating, fishing, camping and animals.

In addition to his parents, surviving are his fiancée, Joni Mitchell of Liverpool; a son, Ryian “Ryan” Henderson; three brothers, Don Hartman of Charleston, S.C., Benjamin Reichert of Hubert, N.C., and Aaron Reichert of Duncannon; a sister, Leeann Swartz of Liverpool; two nephews, Finley and Kurt Reichert; paternal grandparents, Robert Sr. and Lillian Reichert of Ickesburg; and maternal grandmother, Kathleen Enders of Millersburg.

He was preceded in death by a son, Evan, who died in May 2007, and maternal grandfather, Paul Enders Sr.

Services were held April 25 in George P. Garman Funeral Home, Liverpool, with Pastor Pusey Losch officiating.

Burial was in Goodwill Cemetery, Bunkertown.

Memorial contributions may be made to Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia, 34th Street and Civic Center Boulevard, Philadelphia 19104-4399.

www.theperryhistorians.org