

Alice S. (Stambaugh) Rice, (Died 1 Aug 2012), Perry County Times, August 30, 2012

Alice S. Rice, 96, died Wednesday, Aug. 1, 2012 at the Mennonite Home in Lancaster.

She was the first-born daughter of Edgar A. and Ruth Alice Morrow Stambaugh.

She was born in Green Park but lived most of her adult life in New Bloomfield.

She graduated with a B.S. in education from Shippensburg State Teachers College, taught first through eighth grades in several one-room schools, and later was a substitute teacher; and enjoyed working with the junior Sunday school at Christ Lutheran Church, New Bloomfield, helping with the Boy Scouts and being involved community activities, and was an excellent pie baker. Much of her time also was spent assisting her husband with the family business, Rice Memorial Works, New Bloomfield.

She was the widow of Samuel M. Rice.

Surviving are two sons, Samuel A. Rice, M.D., of Lancaster and Matthew M. Rice, M.D., of Gig Harbor, Wash.; two grandchildren, Nathaniel A. Rice of Summit, Wash., and Elizabeth R. Gates of Lancaster; two great-grandchildren, Jackson A. Gates and Andrew D. Gates; two sisters, Martha Reeder of Mechanicsburg and Phoebe Obdyke of Ft. Myers, Fla; and a brother, Harry Stambaugh of Green Park.

She was preceded in death by two sisters and a brother.

A graveside service was held Aug. 11 in Bloomfield Cemetery.

Boyer Funeral Home, New Bloomfield, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Christ Lutheran Church, 46 W. Main St., New Bloomfield 17068, Hospice of Lancaster County, 685 Good Drive, Lancaster 17601, or Mennonite Home Communities, 1520 Harrisburg Pike, Lancaster.
