

Zachariah Rice, (Died 5 Jan 1880), The Perry County Democrat, January 7, 1880, Death Of Zachariah Rice. Blue Ball, Jan. 5, 1880.

Mr. Editor:

Mr. Zachariah Rice, the stage proprietor, died suddenly today. He had been at mill, came home, unloaded some flour and was dusting the flour off his clothes when he felt great pain in his breast. He went into the house but could not lie down; went on the porch for fresh air; suffered and moaned with pain a few minutes and remarked: "I guess I am done," and expired. It is supposed his death was caused by apoplexy. He was aged 66 years and 12 days. His funeral will take place on Thursday. John Rice.

www.theperryhistorians.org