

David Rissinger, (Died 14 Apr 2011), Perry County Times, Monday, May 2, 2011

David Rissinger, 54, formerly of Duncannon, died Thursday, April 14, 2011 at Brigham and Women's Hospital of Boston, Mass. He was a resident of Woburn, Mass., for the past seven years and a resident of greater Boston, including southern New Hampshire for the past 31 years.

He was born in Harrisburg to James W. and Rosemond "Rosie" (Harling) Rissinger.

He had been a flight attendant for US Airways for 31 years and a part-time real estate agent for Prudential Properties of Woburn; a 1975 graduate of Susquenita High School; and enjoyed gardening, sculpting, traveling and caring for his dogs.

In addition to his parents, surviving are his partner, Rick Martelli; a sister, Linda Crabtree of Lemoyne; two brothers, James Jr. and Tom, both of Duncannon; eight nieces and nephews; and extended family, Margaret (Fucci) Martelli of Meford, Mass., and Diane and Glen Cole of Malden, Mass.

A memorial service was held April 23 in Ronald C.L. Smith Funeral Home, Duncannon, with the Revs. David Wynn and David H. Robinson officiating.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Cancer Society for Kidney Research, 30 Speen St., Framington, Mass. 01701.

www.theperryhistorians.org