ROCKWELL, MARY P., widow of Samuel M. Rockwell, was born in Perry County, Penn., Nov. 14, 1814; her father, Gen. Leiby, removed from Pennsylvania to New York, where he remained for some time, and, in Sept., 1834, came to Ohio and settled near Mansfield, where he remained two years, and then removed to what is now Jackson Township, where he resided some five years. In 1840, he moved to Indiana, where he died, in 1859, aged about 73 years. Mr. Rockwell was born in Norwalk, Conn., Dec. 2, 1811; when he was 4 years old, he was left an orphan; he was taken by his grandfather, Joseph R. Rockwell, who came to Ohio and brought Samuel with him; Mr. Rockwell took an interest in the history of Richland County, and was instrumental in having a series of articles published in the Independent News, Shelby, on the "History of Sharon and Jackson Townships." It was his intention to have a full and complete work of the county compiled. Miss Leiby and Samuel M. Rockwell were married March 24, 1836; they had nine children, six of whom are living.
