

Violet M. (Wagner) Rodenhiser, (23 Mar 1910 – 9 Nov 2005), Patriot News, November 11, 2005

Violet M. Rodenhiser, age 95, formerly of Mechanicsburg, passed away Wednesday, November 9, 2005 in Thornwald Home, Carlisle. She was the widow of George H. Rodenhiser.

Violet was born March 23, 1910 in Marysville, PA, to the late Ernest E. and Anna F. Mumper Wagner. She was a retired nurse at Harrisburg Hospital and a former cook at Greenridge Elementary School; a graduate of Harrisburg School of Nursing; member of the St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Mechanicsburg; and a former member of the PA State Employees Retirement System.

Surviving are two daughters, Barbara A. Bell of Mechanicsburg and Margaret "Peggy" A. Himmelreich of Newport; five grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren; her brother, Edward L. Wagner of Decatur, AL; and two sisters, Eva Llewellyn of Eugene, OR and Freda Hunter of Duncannon. She was predeceased by two sons, Thomas M. and G. William Rodenhiser; a great grandson, Nicholas Morret; and three brothers, Willis, Harry and Lee Wagner; and a sister, Kathryn Bumgardner.

Memorial services were held November 12th in her church with the Rev. Anna Thompson and Rev. Matthew Scott officiating. Inurnment in the Mechanicsburg Cemetery. Visitation was at the church Saturday from 10 to 11 a.m.

Arrangements were handled by the Hollinger Funeral Home & Crematory, Inc., Mt. Holly Springs, PA 17065.

www.theperryhistorians.org