

Rosella M. (Skivington) Roth, (21 Mar 1917 – 2 Nov 2009), Perry County Times, Wednesday, November 11, 2009

Rosella M. "Rosie" Roth, 92, formerly of Marysville, died Monday, Nov. 2, 2009 at Sarah Todd Memorial Home, Carlisle.

She was born March 21, 1917 in Duncannon to Arnold and Edith (Cooper) Skivington.

She was co-owner of the former Roth's Cut Rate Store, Marysville, a former cook at Susquenita High School and Davenport's Restaurant, Harrisburg, and, during World War II, was employed as a riveter at the former Middletown Air Force Base; a member of Marysville Church of God, Golden Age Club of Marysville and Marysville Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary.

She was the widow of George D. Roth.

Surviving are a daughter, Carol L. Hoke of Carlisle; a son, A George A. of Rye Twp.; a sister, Ruth M. Metz of Carlisle; six grandchildren, George A. Roth Jr., Jeffrey R. Roth, Steven L. Roth, John D. Hoke, Jennifer N. Chubb and Janell L. Belicic; and eight great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a son, Lawrence Gene, and a sister, Blanche Dickinson.

Services were held Nov. 4 in Michael J. Shalonis Funeral Home, Marysville.

Burial was in Union Cemetery, Duncannon.

Memorial contributions may be made to American Heart Association, 4999 Louise Drive, Suite 104, Mechanicsburg 17055.

www.theperryhistorians.org