

Rev. Andrew J. Rudisell (1867 – 19 Apr 1927), Altoona Tribune April 20, 1927.

Rev. Rudisill died of pneumonia after a weeks illness. He was 59, and was born at Gettysburg, and had attended the schools of that place, Gettysburg Academy and Gettysburg College. Upon graduating he was accepted into the ministry at Mt. Carmel where he married Miss Dora May Briner who died in 1904. A son to this marriage, Donald Everett Rudisill of Lewistown, survives together with his second wife, Mrs. Maud Vaughn Rudisill. Rev. Rudisill also had pastorates at Berlin, Johnstown and has been here since 1917. He received his degree of doctor of divinity from Gettysburg college in 1924.

He was prominent in the work of his church, serving twice as president of the synod, on the examining board of the Lutheran seminaries and colleges and for 10 years a delegate to church conferences.

In addition to his widow and son, a brother, Franklin Rudisill of Gettysburg, two sisters, Mrs. Reuben Swartz of Gettysburg, and Miss Vertie Rudisill, of Hanover, also survive. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the I. O. O. F. Three nephews of Dr. Rudisill are in the ministry, Stewart Rudisill of Elizabeth, N. J., Benton Rudisill and Jacob Rudisill of Philadelphia.
