

Dale Rupley, (22 Nov 1934 – 29 Jan 2011), Perry County Times, Monday, February 11, 2011

Dale Rupley, 76, of Mifflin, died Saturday, Jan. 29, 2011, at the Bridges at Brookline, Mifflintown.

He was born Nov. 22, 1934 in Marysville to the late Ormond D. and Jenny (McCoy) Rupley.

He was a clerk at the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry in Harrisburg, retiring in 1982 after 28 years of service; in his younger years he won many ribbons for rolling skating; and enjoyed traveling, attending flea markets and antiquing.

Surviving are a longtime friend, Harry R. Kennedy of Mifflin, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by two brothers and four sisters.

A graveside service was held Feb. 3 in Chestnut Grove Cemetery, Marysville, with pastor Jennifer Heikes officiating.

Brown Funeral Home, Mifflintown, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Pennsylvania SPCA, Centre Hall Adoption Center, 2451 General Potter Highway, Centre Hall 16828.

www.theperryhistorians.org