

Samuel Knight Sanderson, (31 Dec 1846 - 5 Aug 1899), Bedford Gazette, August 11, 1899

S. K. Sanderson, one of the best known citizens of Saxton and a veteran of the civil war, was mustered out by the Grand Commander on Saturday, August 5. He was born in New Bloomfield, Perry County, fifty-three years ago. At the age of seventeen he joined the Union army and in the sanguinary struggle between the north and the south he fought valiantly with the boys in blue who composed the 188th regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers. For the past twenty years Mr. Sanderson was weighmaster at Saxton for the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad company. Being ill, he deceased, on August 1, went to the sanatorium at Roaring Spring for treatment. There he died. His remains were taken to Saxton and interred there on Tuesday. The funeral services were under the auspices of Heffner Post, G.A.R., of Saxton, of which Mr. Sanderson was a member. He belonged to the Lutheran Church and was an honest, upright man and an excellent citizen. His wife and six children survive him. He was a brother to T. C. and E. E. Sanderson, who live at Saxton.
