

Elizabeth A. (Henry) Morrison-Seidel, (2 Nov 1928 – 15 Jan 2010), Perry County Times, Thursday, January 28, 2010

Elizabeth "Libby" Morrison-Seidel, 81, of Capitan, N.M., formerly of Loysville, died Friday, Jan. 15, 2010.

She was born Nov. 2, 1928 to Arthur G. and Katharine (Kunkle) Henry.

She was a graduate of Blain High School, and a member of the United Methodist Church in Capitan and Kennedy Valley Church of God, Landisburg.

Surviving are her husband, W. Ray Seidel Sr. of Capitan; a sister, Madeline Dunlevy of Harrisburg; a daughter, Sandra Baughman, and a son, Bradley Morrison, both of New Bloomfield; five grandchildren, Donald Baughman Jr., of New Bloomfield, Douglas Baughman of Lemoyne, Dana Baughman of Newport, Heather Welsh of Marysville and Stacy Sollenberger of Newport; four great-grandchildren, Cody Welsh, Dylan Sollenberger, Jayde Welsh and Zachary Baughman; two stepsons, W. Ray Seidel Jr. and Jay Seidel; and several nieces, nephews and step grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Jan. 23 in Kennedy Valley Church of God, Landisburg, with the Rev. Malcolm Martin officiating.

Ballard Funeral Home, Capitan, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Kennedy Valley Church of God, Landisburg 17040.

www.theperryhistorians.org