

William Wilson Sharon, Sr., (Died 20 Jan 1914), Patriot, Wednesday January 21, 1914.
William Sharon, Newport, Dies at Age of 84 Years.

Newport, Jan. 20. – Newport lost another one of its oldest citizens this morning when William Wilson Sharon died at his home on North Second Street, being in his eighty-fourth year.

Mr. Sharon was born near McCallisterville, in which place he served as merchant, postmaster and school teacher. He was also a veteran of the Civil War, having served under three enlistments. For more than twenty years he has been a resident of this town, and until the infirmities of age impaired his health, was active in the affairs of the community. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Samuel A. and William W., Jr., both of Newport, and a step-son Mr. Charles Jacobs, of Jersey City, N.Y.

Funeral services will be conducted from his late home on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of Mr. Sharon's pastor, the Rev. Robert M. Ramsey, of the Presbyterian Church. Interment will be made in the Newport Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org