George W. Slough, a prosperous farmer of Penn Township, Duncannon, Perry County, Pa., was born September 6, 1856, near Newport, Perry County. He is a son of Jacob and Julia A. (Mickey) Slough, natives of Perry County, of whom the former is deceased, and the latter resides in Carroll Township. Jacob Slough, a prominent farmer of Perry County, and a man who enjoyed the confidence of all, passed away, after an industrious and useful life, in June, 1888. He had five children, all of whom are now living. They are: Sarah (Mrs. George W. Shearer), of Carroll Township; William, residing in the same township; Barbara E. (Mrs. James E. Mickey), also of Carroll Township; George W.; and Annie (Mrs. George E. Albright), of Carroll Township.

George W. Slough spent his boyhood in his parents' home, and has resided, for the greater part of his life, in Perry County. His education was acquired in the public schools of the county, and since leaving school, he has always been a farmer. He maintains Democratic principles and policy.

George W. Slough was married in Carroll Township, January 22, 1880, to Sophia, daughter of Daniel and Mary Ann Comp; Mr. Comp, who is deceased, was a native of Perry County, and Mrs. Comp of York County; the latter is still living. Mr. and Mrs. Slough have had nine children, two of whom died in infancy. The seven who survive are: Charles A., born March 13, 1881; Eva V., born August 14, 1882; Rebecca P., born October 14, 1883; Elsie V., born September 21, 1885; George M., born November 17, 1887; James D., born August 8, 1891; Davidson V., born August 26, 1894. He and the members of his family attend the United Brethren Church.
