

A Centennial Biographical History of Crawford County, Ohio, Chicago, The Lewis Publishing Company, 1902

William A. Stine was born in Crestline, Ohio, January 21, 1858, his parents being Adam W. and Hannah (Wentz) Stine, and is the fourth in order of birth of seven children. The father was a native of Berks County, Pennsylvania, and the mother was born in Perry County, that state. Coming to Crawford County they settled in Crestline, where the father became a prosperous contractor and builder, and proprietor of a saw and planing mill.

In the public schools of Crestline our subject obtained a limited education. His business career has been mentioned in the biography of James E. Harrop, which appears above. He has met with fair success in business and is a gentleman of honor and integrity. In 1895 Mr. Stine married Lizzie Hoover, and their home is brightened by two children, namely: Martha and Harriet. They have resided in Bucyrus since the spring of 1901.
