

Margaret E. (Howanstine) Van Camp, (Died 8 Jun 1913), Patriot, June 9, 1913

Mrs. Van Camp had not complained of any illness and went about her regular work. When her daughter came downstairs to get some hot water she found her mother lying on the floor. Dr. Manning was immediately summoned and pronounced the death due to apoplexy.

Mrs. Van Camp was 56 years of age and is survived by her husband, three daughters, Minnie, Edith and Catherine, and four brothers, John, Wilson, David and Edward Howanstein. Funeral services will be held from her late home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. A. M. Stamets, pastor of the Augsburg Lutheran Church, of which Mrs. Van Camp was a member, officiating. Interment will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org