

Edward Lawrence Wagner, (24 Oct 1924 – 28 Apr 2007), Decatur Daily on May 2, 2007

Funeral for Edward Lawrence Wagner, 82, of Decatur will be Thursday, May 3, 2007, at 2 p.m. at Roselawn Funeral Home with the Rev. Randy VanLandingham officiating.

Burial will be in Burningtrees Memorial Gardens. Visitation will be Thursday from noon until 2 p.m. at the funeral home.

Mr. Wagner, who died Saturday, April 28, 2007, at Williamson Medical Center, was born Oct. 25, 1924, in Marysville, Pa., to Ernest Wagner and Anna Mumper Wagner.

He was a graduate of Marysville High School. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II for two years and nine months and furthered his education after World War II by attending Temple University Extension in Harrisburg, Pa. He retired from Redstone Arsenal in 1972.

Mr. Wagner was a member of Ninth Street United Methodist Church, a member of the American Legion and 39 Plus Club and life member of the Moose Lodge. He was a wonderful husband and father. His parents; three brothers, Willis, Lee and Harry Wagner; and two sisters, Kathryn Wagner Bomgarden and Violet Wagner Rodenhiser, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his wife, Althea Belle Stevens Wagner; son, Edward Wagner (Kathleen) of Franklin, Tenn.; four grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren, all of Franklin and Murfreesboro, Tenn.; seven nephews; nine nieces, all of Harrisburg, Pa.; and two sisters, Freda Wagner Hunter of Duncannon, Pa., and Eve Wagner Llewellyn of Keizer, Ore.

Pallbearers will be Lelton Busbey, Milton Lankford, Ken Runager, Edward Wag