

Sarah E. (Eby) Wagner, (12 Jun 1843 – 22 Oct 1928), Newspaper Clipping, The Perry Historians

Mrs. Sarah E. Wagner, widow of John W Wagner, late of Bloomfield, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs David H Metz, in that place, Monday forenoon, death being due to the infirmities of old age, as she was aged 85 years, 4 months and 9 days.

Mrs. Wagner was a daughter of George and Elizabeth (Woomer) Eby and was born in Lykens Valley. She and Mr. Wagner were married October 24, 1861. They lived at different times in Saville Township, near Millerstown, then near this place, and later in Bloomfield where Mr. Wagner died some years ago. To them were born six sons and one daughter. Four of the sons are dead, William, George, Frank and John, the latter who was superintendent of the Carlisle schools, dying only about a year ago. Those living are Edward M. of Harrisburg; Rev. Dr. Scott R., Hagerstown, and Clara, Mrs. D. H. Metz, of Bloomfield.

Funerals services were held Wednesday forenoon at the Metz home, the Rev. J. Thomas Fox officiating and burial was in the Bloomfield Cemetery.
