

Betty S. (Turnbaugh) Wallace, (30 Jan 1931 – 15 Sep 2012), Perry County Times, 27 Sep 2012

Betty S. Wallace, 81, of New Bloomfield died Saturday, Sept. 15, 2012 in Carlisle Regional Medical Center.

She was born Jan. 30, 1931 to the late George Hoffman and Ethel (Hoffman) Turnbaugh. She was raised by Clint and Hattie Stambaugh of Landisburg.

She had worked at Nell's Shurfine grocery store in Carlisle and at several garment factories and Weis Market in Carlisle, and was an avid Penn State football fan and enjoyed gardening and flowers.

She was the widow of Ralph W. "Oscar" Wallace, who died June 10, 2011.

Surviving are three children, Betty D. Womer of Newport and Barbara J. Myers and John W. Wallace, both of Elliottsburg; eight grandchildren, Paul Stone, Angela Womer, Daniel Ebersole, Deborah Morrow, Heather Mullen, and Aaron, Tara and Shania Wallace; five great-grandchildren, Hayley Fulk, Saydey Goudy, Zane Morrow, Evan Mullen and Ethan Mullen; and three siblings, Mary Smiley, Donna Stone and William Turnbaugh.

She was preceded in death by a son, Kenneth E.; and three siblings, Ben Turnbaugh, Ruth Kitner and Ralph Hoffman.

Services were held Sept. 21 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville. Burial was in Bloomfield Cemetery.