

John J. Wallower, 65, Dies At Marysville Patriot, Monday, January 24, 1921.

John J. Wallower, 65 years old, died yesterday at his home in Marysville. Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from the Marysville Church of God. He was an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad for thirty years and was a resident of Harrisburg prior to his moving to Marysville about seven years ago.

He is survived by four daughters and one son. They are: William H. Wallower, of 462 Crescent Street, Harrisburg; Mrs. Leona Mason, of Virginia; Mrs. Etta Stickel, of Washington; Mrs. Anna Steinbrenner, of Lyon Falls, N. Y. and Mrs. Alice Nevins, of New York City.