

Floyd William Wass, (Died Aug 2012), Perry County Times, August 30, 2012

Floyd William Wass, 91, died recently in Texas.

He was born Aug. 9, 1920 in Barker, N.Y., to William E. and Ella Rosseau Wass.

He was raised in Barker and moved to Newport in 1939.

He worked for Pennsylvania Power and Light for more than 40 years; was an Air Corps veteran of World War II; a member of the Masonic Lodge while in Pennsylvania and Texas, a member of Grace Presbyterian Church, Plano, Texas; and enjoyed taking walks and working outdoors and interested in cars and traveled with his wife to every state in the union.

Surviving are his wife of 71 years, Arlene (Jones) Wass; a son, Bill of Santa Cruz, Calif.; a daughter, Marsha Marsele of Plano; a granddaughter, Andrea Wass; two great-grandchildren, Asha and Liam Failor-Wass; a sister, Marion Todd; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by six brothers, Delbert, Vernon, Emmet, George, Milton and Morris; and a sister, Leona Rhodes.

A service was held Aug. 6 at Prestonwood Court in Plano.

Aria Cremation Service and Funeral Home, Dallas, handled arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Dallas Alzheimer's Association, or any charity.