

Etta Laura (McClure) Watters, (18 Mar 1875 – 12 Aug 1953), Altoona Mirror
Wednesday, August 12, 1953, Page 24

Mrs. Etta Laura Watters of 115 Fifth Avenue, widow of Jesse M. Watters, died at her home at 6:55 o'clock this morning after seven years' illness. She was born March 17, 1875, at Blairs Mills, a daughter of James and Ellen (Ewing) McClure. Surviving are one daughter and one son, Mrs. Frank Kreuz and Charles M., one granddaughter, Mrs. E. C. Shore, and two great-grandchildren, Dennis and Frank Shore all of Altoona. Mrs. Watters was a member of the Fifth Avenue Methodist church, the Branches of the Vine Bible class and the Ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. Friends will be received at the Books funeral home after 7 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Altoona Mirror, Thursday, August 13, 1953, Page 29

Watters – Funeral services for Mrs. Etta Laura Watters of 115 Fifth avenue will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Books Funeral Home, in charge of Rev. Roy Bodtorf. Interment in Rose Hill Cemetery. Friends are being received at the Books Funeral Home after 7 p.m. Thursday.