

James W. Willard, (Died 1 Jun 1886), Perry County Democrat, June 9, 1886, New Bloomfield, PA

MARYSVILLE, Pa, June 7, 1886; James W. Willard, of Harrisburg, was killed at Altoona about one o'clock last Tuesday morning while coupling cars. His remains were brought to this place for burial on mail-train last Friday noon and taken to the residence of William A. Sheaffer, Esq., and from there to the Bethel Church, where services were held by Rev. I.C. Yeakel. A delegation of Knights of the Golden Eagle and drum corps of the Son of Veterans accompanied the remains of their lost brother to his last resting place. A wife and four small children survive him.
