

Gladys Mae (Fortenbaugh) Wilson, (10 Jun 1927 – 29 Nov 2011), Perry County Times, 10 December 2011

Gladys Mae Wilson, 84, of Evergreen Road, Shermans Dale, died Tuesday, Nov. 29, 2011 in Holy Spirit Hospital, Camp Hill.

She was born June 10, 1927 in Harrisburg to Joseph and Alice (Rock) Fortenbaugh.

She was a homemaker and retired from the former Bell Telephone Company; enjoyed traveling and had visited Mongolia, China, where she climbed the Great Wall, Florida and Alaska, where she enjoyed fishing for halibut and salmon; and her hobbies included handcrafts and searching for “Snoopy” products.

Surviving are her husband of 65 years, Thomas Wilson Jr.; a son, Steven T. of Alaska; a granddaughter, Emily Wilson of Washington State; and extended family, Tammy, Dave and Chris Such, Ron and Georgia Moyer, all of Newport, Sandra Rock of York and Jan Fortenbaugh of Newport.

She was preceded in death by a son, Kenneth P., and his wife, Pamela.

Boyer Funeral Home, New Bloomfield, handled arrangements.