

Harry L. Wilson, (11 Mar 1932 – 18 Nov 2011), The Perry County Times, Saturday, December 3, 2011

Harry L. Wilson, 79, formerly of Landisburg, died Friday, Nov. 18, 2011 in Sarah A. Todd Memorial Home, Carlisle.

He was born March 11, 1932 to the late Frank and Mabel (Van Horn) Wilson.

He was a self-employed printer; an Army veteran, serving during the Korean War; and a member of Landisburg First Church of God.

Surviving are two sons, Harry L. Jr. of Landisburg and Timothy F. of Shermans Dale; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Samuel, and a sister, Doris Brown.

Services were held Nov. 25 in Nickel Funeral Home, Loysville, with the Rev. Trevor A. Lightner officiating. Burial was in Blain Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Gideons International, Perry County Camp, P.O. Box 114, Loysville 17047.

www.theperryhistorians.org