

Laura B. (Gray) Wilson, (30 Jan 1887 – 28 Oct 1948), Provided by Laura "Randy" Wilson Fennemore; Perry County Times

Mrs. Laura B. Wilson, wife of former County Commissioner Harry C. P. Wilson, died at her home near Loysville, on Thursday evening, October 28th, of a heart condition, following a period of ill health for four years. She was a daughter of James A. and Annie Snyder Gray and was born at Elliottsburg. She was a member of Tressler Memorial Lutheran Church, Loysville, a member of the Ladies Aid Society and of the Loyal Daughters Class of the Sunday School.

Surviving are her husband, three daughters, Dorothy and Lou Ann, at home, and Mrs. Paul Shetron, RN, of Carlisle, three sons, Harry, Jr., Gerald, and Joe of Loysville. Five grandchildren and a brother C. T. Gray of New Cumberland.

Funeral services were held in Tressler Memorial Lutheran Church, Loysville on Sunday at 2 P.M. Her pastor, the Rev. J. Grover C. Knipple officiating and burial was made in the Restland Cemetery.

www.theperryhistorians.org

